

THE POLITE

ELEPHANT

Once upon a time, there was a very nice elephant.

It lived in a big forest with many trees and pretty flowers.

All the animals loved this elephant because it was always so polite.

One sunny day, the nice elephant saw some monkeys playing in the trees.

It wanted to join them, so it walked
up and asked,
"Can I play too,
please?"

The monkeys were surprised to see such a friendly elephant.

They happily said, "Yes, you can play with us! We're happy to have you."

The elephant played the monkeys' games and took turns with everyone. It used kind words and listened carefully to its new friends.

The monkeys were really happy to have such a nice and friendly elephant playing with them.

After playing, the elephant kept walking in the forest.

It found a little bird sitting on a branch, looking worried.

The elephant walked over and asked,
"Are you okay? How can I help you?"

The bird looked up and said, "I'm lost and can't find my nest."

The kind elephant thought for a moment and said, "Don't worry, little bird. I'll help you find your way home."

The elephant gently picked up the bird and flew up into the sky.

They searched together until they found the bird's nest in a tall tree.

The bird was so happy and thanked the elephant for being so helpful.

A cartoon illustration of a purple elephant standing in a grassy field with trees in the background. The elephant is smiling and has its trunk raised. A yellow speech bubble is on the left side of the image, containing text.

The elephant smiled and said,
"You're welcome!
I was happy to help you."

From that day on, all the animals in the forest knew about the nice elephant's kindness. They admired the elephant and tried to be as kind as it was.

And so, the nice elephant lived happily in the forest, making friends and spreading kindness with its polite ways.

THE END

The Polite Elephant