Once, there was a brave firefighter
named Alex.

Alex was a hero because they helped people and kept them safe from fires.

One day, a loud alarm rang at the fire station. It meant there was a fire in a house nearby.

Alex quickly put on their special
firefighter clothes
and jumped into the big red fire truck.

With the sirens wailing, Alex drove fast through the streets. They arrived at a house with lots of smoke and flames.

Using a long hose, Alex sprayed water on the fire.
The water made the fire
go away.

Inside the house, Alex found a family. They were scared and coughing from the smoke.

Alex led them outside, away from the fire.
Everyone was safe.

People clapped and thanked Alex for being so brave and helpful.

Alex felt proud to have helped and kept everyone safe.

And so, Alex
continued to be a
brave firefighter,
always ready to help
and keep people safe
from fires.
