LEVIDIO

THE FRIENDLY DOLPHIN'S

Gift of Friendship

Once upon a time,
in a big blue ocean

There lived a friendly dolphin named Danny. Danny loved to swim and play with all the sea creatures.

One sunny day, Danny saw a little fish named Finn all alone, looking sad.

Danny swam up to Finn and said,
"Hi there, little friend! Why are you feeling so sad?"

Finn replied, "I don't have any friends, and I feel lonely in the big ocean."

Danny smiled and said, "Don't worry, Finn! I will be your friend, and we can have fun together."

From that day on, Danny and Finn became best friends.

They played games, raced through the waves,
and explored the colorful coral reefs.

One day, as they swam near the shore, they found a beautiful shiny seashell.

Danny picked it up and said, "This sparkly seashell is for you, Finn, as a gift of our friendship."

Finn was overjoyed and said, "Thank you, Danny! This seashell is the best gift ever."

They continued to be the happiest friends, spreading laughter and joy throughout the ocean.

The moral of the story is: "True friendship is a wonderful gift that makes everyone happy."
