

THE LOST KITTEN

Journey Home

once upon a time, there was a fluffy kitten named Whiskers. One sunny day, Whiskers wandered far from home and got lost.

"Meow, meow," cried Whiskers, feeling scared. But then, a kind boy named Aron found him.

"Don't worry, little kitty. I'll help you find your way home," said Aron with a smile.

Aron asked the neighborhood for help. "Have you seen this kitten's home?" he asked, showing Whiskers to everyone.

Finally, they met a friendly lady who said,
"Yes, I know Whiskers' home! Let's go."

Following the friendly lady, Aron and Whiskers reached a cozy little house.

"We're home, Whiskers!"
said Aron happily.

WHISKERS' FAMILY

was waiting outside, worried about him.
When they saw Aron with Whiskers, they were relieved.

"Thank you for finding our Whiskers," said Whiskers' mom, giving Aron a warm hug.

Whiskers was happy to be back home with his family. He purred softly, feeling safe and loved.

From that day on, Aron and Whiskers became the best of friends, playing together every day. And so, Whiskers the lost kitten found his way home, all thanks to Aron's kindness and the help of their friendly neighborhood.

THE END