from the Ice Age

This enchanting children's fairy tale is a magical fantasy with valuable life lessons, so remember, it's all just pretend and enjoy the journey with parental guidance

Long ago, in the freezing Ice Age, there were people who lived in a cold land. They had fur to keep warm and they hunted animals for food.

But sometimes, they were greedy. They fought over the food they found. They didn't share and didn't care about others.

One day, they found a big lamb.
Everyone rushed to get the meat.

A little girl named Mia saw something.
She saw a family with hungry faces.
They hadn't eaten for days.

Mia felt sad. She said, "Wait! Let's share with the hungry family."

People stopped and looked. They saw the hungry family too.

They realized they were being greedy. They learned a lesson about sharing and caring.

Together,
they shared
the lamb
meat. The hungry
family
smiled with gratitude.

From that day on, the people were wiser. They didn't fight over food.
They helped each other.

And so, the story from the Ice Age taught us the wonderful value of sharing and caring for others.
